

MIKE BAILEY PAINT SERVICES PROJECT PROFILE

Chapel Street, Sth Yarra Shopping precinct

Project:

Major external and internal refurbishment of four shops and their facades plus a further property nearby at 565 Chapel Street.

Facades were prepared for an artwork commission by Dulux.

Time: October-November 2015

Melbourne Artist – David Bromley at work on the fresco at 565 Chapel Street for Dulux Paints

Preparing the external Facade:

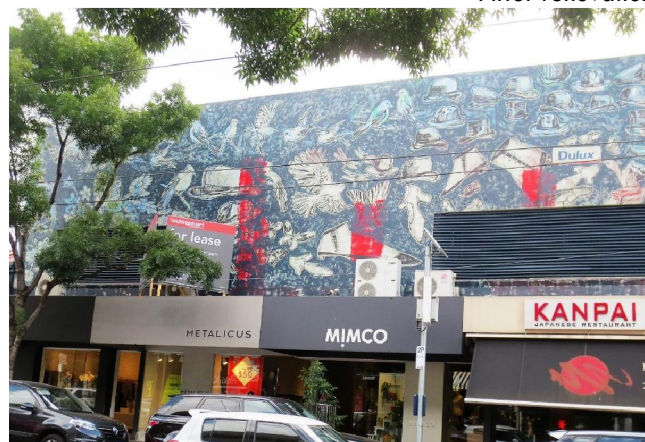

Strip old peeling membrane from walls, patch up surface, repair major cracks. The surface had to be brought up to a high standard ready for Melbourne artist David Bromley to apply his fresco for Dulux Paints. <http://bromleyandco.com/art.html>

Four shops before renovation

After renovation

Mike Bailey's Contract & Brief:

Mike Bailey Paint Services was contracted by Builders – Bortolotto Services – property maintenance solutions. <http://www.bortolottoservices.com.au/property.html>
Work involved internal and external paint and rendering. Feature walls to blend with contemporary furnishings and staircase. More Info www.mikebailey.com.au

View the “Art Meets Fashion” Dulux video on facebook on the behind the scenes story of this project. <https://www.facebook.com/DuluxAustralia/videos/1094641480580166/>